Dear Tim —

Thanks for your letter & general information. I shall wait down for a trunk as I fear Wilson will bungle it. I have - her a merry thought. I can't get in & out of trains with my big suit case so I am going to let Fisher drive me to the Erie station. I always feel like apologizing for my luggage but one must remember it is is really a trunk, & then it seems small. So much depends on the
